

Brownfield Capital + O&M Services

Areas of expertise

- Facility evaluation + audit
- Facility expansion
- System improvements/ optimization
- Operational, safety, reliability improvements
- Emissions reduction
- Facility operating upgrades
- Automation + control upgrades
- Fabrication
- Construction
- Construction management
- Project + cost controls
- Integrated scheduling

Multidisciplinary project solutions to maximize the value of onshore brownfield infrastructure

Optimizing, retrofitting, and maintaining onshore brownfield assets are essential for maximizing ROI. Audubon Companies specializes in operations and maintenance (O&M), modification, and optimization of existing onshore energy infrastructure. We leverage advanced technologies, domain knowledge, and decades of experience to deliver safe, high-performing solutions that maximize operational life while minimizing disruption to critical processes. From production and processing facilities to gathering systems, pipelines, and terminals, Audubon customizes solutions for your brownfield project with flexibility, efficiency, and safety.

O&M services

- Asset integrity
- Surveying, mapping, right-of-way
- Water + wastewater treatment
- Environmental permitting
- Regulatory filing support
- Facility management
- Tank + jurisdictional analysis
- Program development
- Turnaround planning + management
- Debottlenecking studies
- Operator training
- Third-party product transport
- Process safety + risk management

auduboncompanies.com
sales@auduboncompanies.com

January 2026. Professional engineering, survey, and construction services are offered and performed only in the states in which the Audubon entity offering those services maintains the required licensure.

